

Member Checklist for Interconnection

- Submit an Application to Tanner
 - ✓ Interconnection inverter must be UL 1741 Listed
 - ✓ Electrical schematic drawing must be included
 - ✓ Include provisions for a lockable visible disconnect.
- Send to: Tanner, PO Box 1426, North Bend, WA 98045-1426
- Receive written design approval from Tanner
- Get an electrical permit from Washington State L&I.
- Complete the installation.
- Get inspections from a state electrical inspector and Tanner (call Tanner for inspection at 425-888-0623).
- If net metered, Tanner approves, or installs new, bi-directional meter.
- If production metered, Tanner installs a bi-directional production meter at Member cost after inspection approval. Tanner will own meter and have responsibility for maintenance and replacement.
- Submit Certificate of Completion to Tanner
- Start generating power

Questions?

Call the Tanner at 425-888-0623